

KERR SUBMITS REPORT ON GENERAL CITY FINANCING AND ORGANIZATION

Leslie Kerr, of the taxation and revenue committee of the committee for Campbell incorporation, submitted the following report this week on general city government. Kerr is a former auditor for the federal government and has had 30 years experience in preparing reports similar to the series which he has prepared for the taxation and revenue committee.

The text of Kerr's report is as follows:

GENERAL CITY GOVERNMENT

The first city officials of Campbell will be a board of councilmen consisting of five members, a city clerk, and a city treasurer. All of these officers will be elected by a majority vote of the local electorate. Anyone of legal age may file for any of these offices if he or she is a legal resident of the area proposed for incorporation. Under these circumstances, no one has the power to name or to limit the number of candidates seeking election to office.

"The board of county supervisors will set the dates for filing of candidate petitions to cover the various city offices. This will be done at the time the supervisors specify as the date for the special election called to determine whether or not the town of Campbell is to become an incorporated city.

Accordingly, if you desire to vote for a particular person for a specific office, it is incumbent upon YOU to induce that person to file a petition of candidacy seeking election to office.

CITY COUNCIL

The five council candidates receiving the greatest number of votes cast at the special election become and will constitute the first city council.

The new city council will select one of its own members to preside as chairman of the board. And, the member thus selected is called the mayor. It is expected that the council members and the mayor will serve without compensation, though expenses incurred on official business are to be paid by the city.

CITY CLERK

The statutory duties of a city clerk are to keep an accurate record of council proceedings and to maintain records of city finances. Nevertheless, an energetic and capable person would welcome the opportunity to assume greater responsibilities than those specified as the minimum legal requirements.

The clerk is selected by majority vote of the local citizens. And, therefore, the electorate should not make the mistake of judging this important position as a part-time sinecure or a post that can be handled satisfactorily by "just anybody."

This official in many California cities is the "jack of all trades" and likewise this will apply with equal force to the city of Campbell. Unless the voters rule otherwise and thus make it necessary to add other employees to the payroll of the city.

It is herein contemplated that the duties of this officer will include all activities of city operation except general administration, judicial, and the technical features of law, public safety, and public works. In fact, the city clerk is to handle and be held responsible for all city documents, records, and accounts. In addition, he or she will act as the intermediary between the public and the administration, to include heads of departments. And, in actual practice, this is the logical place in a small city to procure data and reliable information of any kind relating to the city.

In addition to the previously stated assignments, the duties of the clerk could and should include responsibility for: (1) collection of license fees; (2) clerical assistance to the city treasurer; (3) conduct of city elections; and, (4) such other functions as may be made by the city council. Thus greater efficiency would result; it would not be necessary to employ separate individuals for each of these tasks; and, the city council would be justified in allowing greater emoluments of office.

The remuneration of this position should be sufficiently attractive to invite the interest of thoroughly competent persons to seek appointment to this post. In arriving at a choice the electorate should give special consideration to a combination of tact and talent. Tact enough to generally represent the city in all contacts with the public at the town hall, and with all other city employees. And, with sufficient experience and talent to cope with the varied and arduous duties encountered in this position of trust.

A thoroughly competent official of this type should receive pay equal to that of the chief of police. The suggested rate for Campbell is placed at not less than $3,600 per annum.

Yes, some small cities pay much less. For example, a nearby city of less than 2,000 population pays around $340 to its city clerk and in addition employs a deputy at over $2,900 to do the actual work. The total cost of this one-man job exceeds $3,800 per annum.

TREASURER

The first city treasurer of Campbell will be an elective official to be selected by the electorate at the time of voting for the adoption or rejection of the proposal to incorporate the town and community of Campbell.

The statutory duties of a city treasurer for a sixth-class city like Campbell will be to receive all monies given him as city treasurer and to deposit same in a bank for safekeeping. To countersign all withdrawal checks, and to make monthly report of his transactions.

Duties of a Campbell treasurer would be limited indeed, if all clerical work were handled by the city clerk's office. And at the same time, result in greater efficiency and economy in operating the latter office. Under these circumstances the emoluments of office should be quite nominal—say not over $10 monthly.

Of course, it is possible that the city council may not desire to curtail duties of the treasurer. But to the contrary, may add other functions. In which event, the suggested remuneration of $10 would be inadequate, depending on additional assignments.

CITY ATTORNEY

An attorney for the city of Campbell will be an appointive officer and subject to confirmation of the city council.

Legal services for Campbell will necessarily be part-time. And, it would be most desirable to secure the services of an attorney with experience in municipal law. Or, at least, one who is willing to become informed along these lines.

In the event that a local attorney is not available or is not willing to perform these functions at a charge the city can afford, perhaps the city attorney of a neighboring municipality would be willing to take this part-time post, on a combined retainer and fee basis.

It is contemplated that if a local attorney is appointed, he will privately provide and furnish his own office. In case of an out-of-town appointment, he will transact official city business at the limited facilities to be provided for as a town hall, but no exclusive space is to be assigned for this special purpose.

No attempt is made herein to define an appropriate remuneration for the Campbell attorney. In looking over annual reports of different small cities, it appears that no uniformity prevails. Many of the sixth-class cities expend only nominal amounts for this service, probably placing a value upon the prestige to be gained through this official connection.

However, the tentative proposed budget sets aside not to exceed $1,000 as a retainer. And, another $1,000 for possible fees and legal expenses arising during first year of city operation. These amounts may or may not be adequate.

JUDICIAL (COURT)

Inasmuch as there are differences of opinion as to requirements under the recent court enactment, the writer does not feel qualified to make any suggestions in this connection. Yet, it does appear certain that the city officials of Campbell will have no choice or jurisdiction in the premises.

Probably there will be an interim period between time of city operation and effective date of new court installation. If so, it may be necessary to name a protem judge or to use the services of the local justice of the peace.

The jurisdiction of the new court will embrace the communities of Campbell, Los Gatos, and Saratoga. And, until such time as Campbell and Saratoga incorporate as cities, the court will convene and sit at Los Gatos.

It is not known at this time on what basis a division of the court fines and penalties will be made or apportioned nor what the revenue effect will be for Campbell.

POST-AUDIT

It is anticipated that city officials and employees responsible for city monies will be bonded by a reliable surety corporation. Consequently, it will be necessary to make periodic examinations and audits of the city records and accounts.

Service of this nature should be supplied by a competent accounting firm, preferably on a contract basis, to include assistance in setting up the books of account of the new city and in making opening and closing entries therein.

An "on-call" service is desirable, more especially in case the city clerk is not an experienced auditor. The cost to the city will depend largely on the degree of individual capacity possessed by the clerk elected to office.

The customary charge by an accounting firm is $50 per day and upward. Naturally an inexperienced clerk will soon become hopelessly involved and require more help to get straightened out again. No estimate of cost to the city of Campbell is attempted.

CITY HALL

Quarters are necessary to house the administrative forces and city records. Among the possible solutions are: (1) rental of suitable space; (2) partial use of the central fire station in conjunction with

OVER 800 SIGN PETITIONS CALLING FOR SPECIAL INCORPORATION VOTE

THREE CANDIDATES ARE ENTERED IN FALL FESTIVAL QUEEN CONTEST

Three queen candidates have been selected for the Queen of the Campbell Harvest Festival. Those selected are Marlene Strong, sponsored by the American Legion; Marilyn Louise McCoy, sponsored by the Orchard City Grange; and Marialice Grim, sponsored by the St. Lucy's Men's Club. Queens will be chosen by a system of votes whereby one vote will be presented for each dollar purchase in one of the participating merchants' establishments. Purchasers may then present their votes to the queen of their choice. A grand prize of $100 cash will be awarded to the winning candidate on the opening night of the Festival during the coronation ceremonies.

The Harvest Festival is being sponsored by members of the committee for Campbell incorporation in order to raise the necessary money needed to guarantee costs of the incorporation election. Members of the festival committee stressed that funds received from the festival would not be used to foster any campaign for or against incorporation, but would be posted with the county board of supervisors, as prescribed by law, to guarantee the costs of holding a special election.

Organizations which have signified their desire to enter into the festivities and will have booths include the American Legion, VFW, Military Order of Cooties, Community Service Club, and the Orchard City Grange. The Junior Chamber of Commerce stated at a meeting held Wednesday night that they will also participate in the festival.

The festival will be held on the Campbell Grammar School athletic field on October 12 and 13. Tentative plans call for games, dancing, contests, booths, and other types of entertainment.

Merchants who have signed up to participate in the festival to date are:

J&A Food Mart, Campbell Hardware, Campbell Furniture & Appliance Company, Accardi's Home Appliances, Burnett's Appliances, Clark's Drugs, Campbell Variety, Rachel's, Campbell Pharmacy, The House of Carpets, Dave Ribble's, Nelson Grain & Supply, Guarantee Shoe Store, Rozanne Shop, Decker's Market, Jim Arnold Meats, Dolly Ann Shop, Helen's Juvenile Shop, Pete Bliss Jeweler, Campbell Floral Shop, Western Auto Supply Co., Strong Paint Company, Hubert's Furniture, Jones Service Station, Shell Service Station, Campbell & Central, Field's Grocery Store, Re's Market, Campbell Pastry Shop, TnT Variety Store, Campbell Cleaners, Burnett's Washette, Grannis Furniture, Lee's Signal Station, Verle O. Grizzle, Jeweler, Horace's Market, Lico's Market, Rural Gas Service & Campbell Appliance, Aero Drugs, Campbell Lumber Co.

Contest rules for the queen contest state that candidates must be sponsored by a local civic organization, club, society, or similar group. Votes are obtained from Campbell area merchants participating in the festival with one vote being awarded for each dollar spent with a participating merchant. Any person may collect the votes and turn them over to their favorite candidate. Votes will be collected and counted by the Campbell Harvest Festival Committee.

SCHOOLS TO CLOSE

Elementary schools of Campbell Union School District will be closed Friday, September 28, to allow district teachers to attend the Santa Clara County Teacher's Institute.

The Institute schedule includes a morning session devoted to problems of special educational fields and general sessions in the afternoon for all teachers.

Richard Gordon, music co-ordinator for the Campbell schools, will preside over a meeting of Special Music Teachers where the new State music texts will be presented and discussed.

About 100 teachers from the district will attend.

INCORPORATION QUESTION AND ANSWER COLUMN

(Questions submitted to the Campbell Press on the subject of incorporation will be answered in this column by the general committee for Campbell Incorporation.—Ed.)

Q. What is the approximate amount that will be collected from permits and licenses?

A. Based on a population of 7,000 persons the approximate revenue will be $8,000.

Q. During the period between incorporation and property tax revenue how will the city operate?

A. Partially from monies derived from licenses and permits; fines and penalties; privileges, state subventions and grants; charges for service, etc.

Q. Would incorporation of Campbell make a difference in court revenue?

A. Not from the point of money collected from this district, but it definitely would from the standpoint of money collected in this area and maintained by this area. At present monies collected go into the county funds. A municipality would retain that revenue for local purposes. The approximate sum that would be retained by Campbell, based on a population of 7,000 would be $12,000.

Q. What will the overall cost of operation be for the City of Campbell?

A. Based on a population of (Continued on page four)

WEST VALLEY HOSPITAL BONDS FAIL TO GAIN NEEDED TWO-THIRDS VOTE

The $750,000 West Valley Hospital bond issue failed to gain the necessary two-thirds votes Tuesday as voters rolled up a tally of 2868 for to 2387 against. Although affirmative votes carried the majority, they failed to reach the needed two-thirds. Approximately 36 percent of the 14,500 voters registered went to the polls.

The district, which included the Saratoga-Los Gatos-Campbell area was formed by a vote of the people in 1949.

Herb Shadle, chairman of the board of directors of the hospital district, stated that the defeat of the issue was, in his opinion, due to a well-organized campaign of opposition. "The opposition to the bond issue seemed to have unlimited resources to draw upon for campaign funds. The voters were flooded with a mass of misinformation. We had no great funds to publicize the facts about the issue."

Shadle stated that the next move is up to the board and said that should application for government funds be approved, a much larger and more fully equipped hospital would be planned.

Martin S. Walsh, local member of the board stated that he felt the defeat of the bonds was due to the fact that the voters were under the impression that their taxes would be raised abnormally by approval of the hospital. "Actually, the maximum tax rate was set by law and could not have reached an abnormal tax load."

Walsh stated that he felt the outcome might have been different if a larger percentage of the voters had gone to the polls. The board is planning a meeting in the near future to decide their next move.

Two courses are now open to the board of directors, Harry Whiteman, secretary, stated that the board is legally empowered to levy the maxi-

Anticipate Early Submission Of Petitions To County Assessor For Certification Of Signatures

More than 800 signers to petitions calling for a special election for Campbell incorporation were reported by members of the petition committee at a meeting held Monday night. The figure is practically double the number who signed petitions during the 1948 campaign for incorporation. A spokesman for the committee stated that they anticipate submission of the petitions to the county board of supervisors within a week.

Circulators voiced optimism, stating that in some areas, as high as 98 pct. of those contacted signed the petitions. Overall average was estimated at 60 percent with results from many of the areas still incomplete.

Following certification of the signatures on petitions by the county assessor, the board of supervisors may then set as many hearings as they deem necessary to establish the need for a special election, provided the hearings do not exceed a two-month period. During the hearings individuals or groups may petition the board for exclusion from the boundaries of the proposed city.

Following approval by the board of supervisors, date for a special election will be set.

Mrs. Charles Chubb, chairman of incorporation petition committee, stated that petitions have been and are now being circulated in every area within the proposed city limits. Only property holders have been asked to sign the petition calling for a special election because the law states that petitions must be signed by residences whose holdings total at least 25 percent of the assessed valuation of the proposed city limits. Any registered voter however, may vote in the special election. Incorporation lost by a very narrow margin in the last election in 1948.

Retaining Wall In Creek Bed Under Repair

Dan Caputo, contractor, has been awarded a contract by the county to repair and replace approximately 130 feet of retaining wall in the Los Gatos Creek bed by the Campbell Avenue bridge. W. A. McClure, senior county engineer, stated that the new retaining wall is designed to prevent any further trouble caused by high waters during the rainy season. Caputo's crews started work on the retaining wall this week.

The Campbell Chamber of Commerce had previously submitted a request to the county board of supervisors asking that sections of the retaining wall be repaired. Approximate cost of the repairs is $16,000.

Rotary Club To Welcome District Governor Here

Mr. Bush is retired from the Garberville Pharmacy which he owned and operated for eighteen years, and is a member of the Rotary Club of Garberville. ### Campbell Schools Show Increase In Enrollment

An increase of 455 pupils over opening day of last year was reported by Campbell Union School District during the first week of school. Superintendent William C. Henley said enrollment will show a further rise for several weeks as late arrivals continue to enter.

Campbell Grammar School reported 1467 pupils on Monday; Moorpark, 942; San Tomas, 518, and the County Hospital School, part of Campbell district, 29. Total was 2,956.

Bus transportation problems due to rising enrollment are being ironed out as fast as possible, Henley said. At present the seven bus fleet, operating on a tight time schedule and carrying full loads, makes 51 trips a day. Buses run from 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Revised schedules may be necessary as enrollment increases in the first few weeks, and timing will be more smooth.

Increased enrollment has returned double sessions. Classes through the first three grades at Campbell, first two grades at Moorpark, and a second and third grade at San Tomas are running on two shifts.

Cambrian school opened with an enrollment of 665 and expects an increase to peak enrollment of 700. The school held only one day of classes this week because of uncompleted construction. A full time schedule will be resumed on Monday.

Building program is progressing rapidly and it is anticipated that the first unit of five classrooms will be ready for occupancy by December 1.

The Campbell Union School District's proposed building program moved closer to reality this week with the district advertising for bids on the Cypress Avenue school. Bids are due into the school board October 4. The new school, on Cypress Avenue, south of Stevens Creek Road, should be ready for pupils near the end of the school year or by September, 1952.

Superintendent William C. Henley said plans for the proposed Rosemary School have been approved by the State Department of Education, and Division of Architecture and have been sent to the Department of Finance for approval there. Approval by the National Production Authority, also required, has not yet been received. Henley said action by the Authority has been slow and a letter has been sent to Congressmen Jack Anderson in an attempt to expedite approval.

He illustrated his talk with colored slides and pictures of the camps, valleys and streams which he had visited and told of several trips which he had made with Boy Scout groups.

The meeting was presided over by President Fred Jones. Program chairman was E. W. Barnes. L. J. Hill, principal of Campbell Union High School, will act as program chairman of next week's meeting on a program devoted to the coming high school football season.

Local BPW To Join In Observing National Business Woman's Week

Members of the Campbell Business and Professional Women's Club will join with members of other clubs throughout the nation next week in the 24th annual observance of National Business Women's Week, September 23-29. The underlying principle of the theme, "Full Partnership for the Job Ahead" will be demonstrated during the week when some 15,000 members of the California Federation of BPW clubs join with clubs from all over the nation in celebration of the week under the direction of their president, Dr. Dorothy Patterson.

The purpose of National Business Women's Week, according to Mrs. Zella Stone, state public affairs chairman, who is directing plans for the celebration, is to dramatize women's contribution to the economic, social and political life of the community. It offers an opportunity to clubs to acquaint their communities with the national and state program and to arouse interest in the objectives of the organization.

Spearheading the drive to secure passage of the Equal Rights Amendment to the Federal Constitution, which currently claims the interest of the 160,000 members of the national organization, September 26, will be designated as "Equal Rights Day" in California. Emphasizing that Equal Rights begin at home, Mrs. Stone is urging individual clubs to incorporate this day into their Business Women's Week celebration, with special publicity and meetings designed to focus public attention on this event.

Promotion of a program in the field of public affairs, will be pointed toward and concerned with effective citizenship of the individual member and with club work to improve our democratic community life. "It becomes increasingly important that we meet the challenge to our American ideals," explained Mrs. Stone. In line with this idea clubs will be urged to start a campaign of truth to help combat this threat to our freedom heritage.

The Small Business Clinic continues as one of the major projects of the California Federation. Dr. Dorothy Patterson has announced that for the third consecutive year, the "clinic" has had a featured attraction of "Women's Day" on September 8, at the California State Fair. "Aids to Small Business Show" as the clinic was known this year, was under the direction of Mrs. Lela Swasey, past president of the California Federation of BPWC, and state Small Business Clinic chairman. Mrs. Swasey finds real encouragement in the ever-increasing number of organizations showing interest in offering cooperation. "It indicates a realization of the value of the project," commented Mrs. Swasey. "It is cause for pride that our Federation introduced it in California."

Campbell Librarian Returns From Five-Week Vacation at Fontainebleau

Mrs. Florine Peake, Campbell librarian, recently returned from a five-week visit with her daughter, Marion Peake, in Fontainebleau, France. Her daughter is in charge of the International Club at the Allied Headquarters in France.

Fontainebleau, approximately 50 miles from Paris, was one of Napoleon's favorite chateaus and was formerly the home of Louis XIV and Marie Antoinette. The chateau is surrounded by more than 50,000 acres of woods. The depot now used by the American troops at Casren includes the old barracks of Napoleon's troops.

The Campbell librarian told of the beauty of the road from Fontainebleau to Paris and described the miles of tree-lined highway leading to the French capital. From Fontainebleau, Mrs. Peake described the road to Rheims, where she visited the famous Cathedral of Rheims. "The road to Rheims goes through the center of country famed for its production of champagne. There are 18 miles of wine cellars along the highway which contain more than 20 million bottles of champagne."

During her trip through the south of France, the Campbell librarian duplicated the route of Napoleon on his march back through France following his return from Elba. "We even stayed at many of the inns which Napoleon visited on his return from exile in Elba. All the rooms which he had stayed in were preserved exactly the same as they were in the early 19th century and all carried his coat of arms."

They traveled through the walled city of Avignon, former stronghold of the popes and through Burgundy, chief wine sector.

During their trip they also motored through the Rhone valley. Mrs. Peake described the valley as a huge garden with miles of cultivated lands which were set off by the Rhone River winding through the center.

She also visited the Riviera and stopped for a short time to watch the gambling at Monte Carlo. She stated that the managers of the casino would allow no beginners to gamble and were extremely particular about allowing outsiders into the casino. She also visited Cannes and Nice along the Mediterranean Sea and returned through Lyon and Dijon, famous for its production of mustard. One of the most surprising contrasts she noticed during her trip were the modern American type gas stations next to old period houses in small historical villages.

Mrs. Peake stated that she found Paris to be a city of boulevards with many beautiful parks and tree lined avenues. During the night, many of the more famous monuments are lighted. "Paris is one of the most beautiful cities I have ever visited. Parks are visible every two or three blocks and the broad streets give it an extremely clean look. We also found the country to be very beautiful and clean. Not once did we see any evidence of trash or newspapers which is so often in evidence here."

One of the most distinguishing features of France, Mrs. Peake discovered, is the way of life of the people. "They seem to be satisfied to make their living and be content with the more simple things of life in contrast to the constant drive and speed which is evidenced by Americans." She stated that many American businessmen become impatient with the French for this trait. "Often the French seem unwilling to make the improvements which so many of our businessmen believe would bring more profit for their crops and manufactured goods." Many of the French seem to desire friendly advice on their problems rather than the more direct American way of telling what is wrong and recommending improvements.

Mrs. Peake also noticed that the middle class of France is rapidly dying out, leaving only the very wealthy and the poor classes. She was impressed by the friendly attitude and the generosity of the French during her trip and stated that they made her feel very much at home.

Crusade For Freedom Learns Of Imprisonment Of Czech Clergy

Editors: Note The Crusade for Freedom, which supports Radio Free Europe, receives extensive information about life and conditions behind the Iron Curtain from RFE correspondents in all major European countries. Much of this material deals with religious persecution in the prisoner states, like this shocking story from Czechoslovakia.

COMMUNIST REGIME IMPRISONING CLERGY IN CZECH MONASTERY

The Nova-Rise Monastery is located in an isolated Czechoslovakian valley surrounded by forests some 20 kilometers from the Moravian-Austrian border. This monastery was chosen by the Communist Czechoslovak regime, headed by Communist Premier Gottwald, to imprison the rebellious clergy, including Monsignor Beran, who did not wish to accept the new Communist "credo."

Some 250 priests and monks are at present detained in the monastery. They are guarded by a police group of some 80 men and three officers. There are, furthermore, some officials of the Political Police, several Commissioners, and about ten "specialists" (i.e., very able Communist agents with religious training, who have a perfect knowledge of the problems to be treated.)

The life of the internees in Nova-Rise is very hard. The only religious activities permitted are the celebration of Mass and reading of the Breviary. Mass is the only occasion at which all internees may see each other. After the morning Mass they are conducted to the dining room for breakfast, where they have to keep absolute silence. After breakfast they may take a walk in the monastery courtyard. They have to walk in single file in a circle and are not allowed to talk. At the least sign of indiscipline, or when somebody breaks the silence, the whole group has to re-enter the monastery immediately and the "concession" of the daily walk is suspended for three days.

After the morning walk, internees are divided into several classes and have to attend political conferences aimed at convincing them to accept collaboration with the Communist regime and to make loyal propaganda among the population.

They are told that even though there are still many inconveniences at present, everything will be better in the very near future as soon as Capitalism is destroyed and America defeated. They are told that the Pope has detached himself from evangelic simplicity and is nothing but a reactionary. Therefore the clergy should not follow him inasmuch as all his orders are dictated by Capitalistic interests. They declare, for example, that the famous Casino of Monte Carlo is in the hands of the Vatican.

After such conferences the internees are urged to discuss "free-

Freedom Crusade Enters Final Week Monday

The Campbell branch of the Crusade for Freedom will enter its final week Monday. Contributions may be made to the drive Saturday at booths in the American Trust Company and on the corner of Campbell Avenue and Winchester Road. A spokesman for the drive stated that signatures on the Crusade for Freedom blanks are as vital as contributions to the effort. "The signatures will be placed at the site of the proposed radio station in Europe so that the inhabitants of the area may see that the effort is backed by members of all walks of American society and not just a select group." He stated that persons might sign the blank without making any contributions.

Purpose of the drive is to gain funds to finance the continued operation and to build new stations to broadcast the truth to peoples behind the Iron Curtain. The campaign, originated by Gen. Lucius Clay, was started to tell people of Communist countries the truth about the American way of life. One radio station in Munich was built with funds collected during last year's drive and construction of another station is proposed for this year.

Two booths for making contributions have been set up in town under the direction of the American Legion Auxiliary and the VFW Auxiliary. The American Legion booth is under the direction of Mrs. Arnold Olson with Mrs. Carl Olson and Mrs. Clarence Fagade occupying the booth. The VFW booth is under the direction of Mrs. Esther Sargent. Both booths will be open Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 12 and from 1 p.m. to 2.

Incorporation Questions

7,000 persons, it is estimated the cost for city operation for the first year will be about $60,000.

Q. If Campbell operates the first year without a property tax how much will the city go in the red?

A. It is possible to end the year—not in the red—but with a comfortable surplus. According to state controller's figures the eight cities that incorporated during the years 1948-49 all ended their first year with a surplus without benefit of a property tax. The eight cities referred to are Barstow, Capotola, Coachella, Folsom, Guadalupe, Kerman, Pismo Beach, and Portola.

Q. I understand that the general committee for Campbell incorporation has a complete slate of city officials all picked out. Is this true?

A. It is not. The prime objective of the committee is to help incorporate the community of Campbell. At the proper time anyone can file and run for any post in city government.

Q. How large a police force would Campbell have providing the area incorporates?

A. That of course is up to the men and women that you elect to represent you on the city council. However it has been previously determined that five full time officers would be adequate. In addition it might be possible to employ part time personnel if needed.

Q. How can we be assured of a clean city administration?

A. The only assurance is through the lawful channels of election and recall of the personnel that you and your neighbors elect to represent you on the city council.

GROUP STUDIES PRUNE HARVESTING

How far ahead of peak maturity can prunes be harvested and yet become an acceptable dried product?

A joint project recently set up by the divisions of pomology and food technology in the University of California College of Agriculture may soon provide an answer.

Test plots were established this year in six prune areas. Pickings—started well ahead of normal harvest dates—have been continued at five-day intervals. On both the fresh and the resulting dried fruits, various indices of maturity are being studied—flesh color, firmness, sugar content and acidity, for example.

Previous experimental work of the division of food technology and the Coast Laboratories of Fresno have indicated that harvest should be slightly in advance of peak maturity. But just how far? This is the perplexing question growers face each year. Thus far, the solution has usually been on a "follow-the-leader" basis.

Dehydration facilities make it impossible for all prunes in an area to be harvested at the peak of top-quality. If picking is delayed beyond this date, the prunes may develop gas pockets and the flesh may become dark in color. If picked too green, the prunes are poor in flesh color and in flavor when dried.

Scientists working cooperatively on harvest date are L. L. Claypool and C. J. Hansen of the pomology division and John H. Kilbuck of food technology.

Former Campbell Teacher Promoted By Air Force

Dean R. Chamberlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Chamberlin of 348 W. Sacramento Avenue, Chico, has been promoted to the rank of Captain. The 35-year-old graduate of Chico High School and Chico State College is a former student at the University of California. He is a member of Charity Lodge 362, and Phi Delta Kappa. Before his recall to active duty, he was teaching at the Campbell Union High School. He is married and has two children. Chamberlin's present assignment is that of fighter director for the 666th Aircraft Control and Warning Squadron at Mill Valley.

While in Campbell, Chamberlin was active in the Footlighters drama group and was past master of the local Masonic Lodge.

The 666th is a unit of the 28th Air Division (Defense) at Hamilton Air Force Base. The Division commanding officer is Col. Hobart R. Yeager.

The 28th is charged with defending the northern half of California as well as northwestern Nevada from hostile attack by air. The area includes the vital San Francisco bay region and its important transportation, communication and industrial facilities.

To do the defense job, the 28th relies on a radar warning system, civilian volunteer ground observers and jet interceptor-fighters. The division is part of the Western Air Defense force, which covers eleven western states. The midwest and south are protected by the Central Air Defense force and the northeast by the Eastern ADF. Over the entire system is the Air Defense command.

Cupertino Says Property Purchase Not For Hospital

John A. Cussen Jr., of Lawrence Road, Cupertino, squashed recent rumors that property which he is negotiating to buy will be used by the Permanente Foundation for the erection of a hospital. Negotiations are now under way by Cussen for the purchase of approximately 20 acres of property located on the corner of Los Gatos-Santa Clara Road and Winchester which is owned by Thomas Blanchard, M.D., of San Jose.

Cussens stated that, "... property in question is being purchased by my family and me as an investment for the future development. Neither I nor my family is connected with or representing any institution or hospital." Cussen stated that he wished to end rumors which intimated that he was purchasing the property as a representative of the Permanente Foundation.

Sale of the property, which constitutes a portion of the former Winchester estate, is predicated on a sale price of $200,000. Wm. Reinhart, realtor, is handling the sale.

Tax Collections Reach New High For Fiscal Year

Total tax collections, federal, state and local, skyrocketed to new highs in California during the fiscal year 1950-51 and were 20 percent higher than the peak war production year of 1944-45, Lloyd W. Dinkelspiel, chairman of the statewide committee of the California State Chamber of Commerce reported today.

According to Dinkelspiel, the 1950-51 total tax bill was $5,504,215,233 as compared with the strain of war year 1944-45 when all taxes totaled $4,622,002,233. In that war year, Californians paid more in federal taxes than any year previous or since, including $758,583,070 in excess profits tax which swelled the federal tax total to $3,722,459,219.

Although no excess profits tax was collected for 1950-51, new and heavier federal levies brought in a total of $3,558,227,340 making it the highest federal tax year since 1944-45. Despite this high total, the Chamber study pointed out that the full effect of past and pending tax legislation has not yet been felt.

By far the largest increase in the period from 1944 to 1951 was in state taxes. Recently the tax department of the State Chamber issued figures showing that state taxes of the six years had doubled from $557,570,524 to $1,139,987,893. Property taxes levied by county and city government and school and special districts over the same period rose every year from $345,972,490 to $806,000,000 in 1950-51, according to the Chamber's estimate on a basis of actual levies. This was a 133 percent increase in six years.

By comparison, in the last fiscal year 1949-50, federal taxes totaled $2,794,713,396; state, $946,159,423 and local, $736,408,311 for a total tax bill of $4,477,281,130.

Campbell Business and Professional Women's Club

Campbell, California

TO THE CITIZENS OF CAMPBELL:

As is the custom every year at this time the Business and Professional Women's Club of Campbell commemorate the founding of our parent organization, the National Federation of Business and Professional Women. This year marks the 24th anniversary of the beginning of our national organization.

Dedicated to the preservation and development of the fundamental democratic ideals upon which our nation stands, we the members of the Campbell chapter of BPW feel proud to be part of this organization.

This year also marks the completion of four years of civic activities for the Campbell Business and Professional Women. It is with great pride that we again make known to the citizens of Campbell our aims and purposes.

The BPW is a non-partisan, non-sectarian, self-governing organization whose chief objectives are: to encourage a comradely relationship among business and professional women; to inform them of civic and national questions, and to awaken them to a sense of citizenship responsibility. As a result of these aims, the members have taken active, leading roles in such community enterprises as the establishment of public parks and playgrounds, libraries, museums, baby clinics, nursery schools and vocation guidance agencies. Nationally their support has been given to broadgauged and progressive legislation.

Our local chapter looks forward, with eagerness, to a continued program of activities in Campbell for the coming year.

Northern Deer Season Opens On Saturday

With a record-breaking kill of bucks during the first of two deer hunting seasons behind them, California hunters will set out at one-half hour before sunrise, Saturday, September 22, to bag their limit in the north coastal and inland areas and contribute to what may be the State's highest annual harvest of deer.

Incomplete summaries of deer tag returns compiled by the Division of Fish and Game show an early season harvest approximately 25 percent greater than in 1950. With restrictions removed on the taking of forked-horn deer in northeastern California, it is indicated that the 1949 record harvest of 52,000 deer will be topped.

Game managers credit the improved 1951 hunting prospects to better weather conditions, overabundance of deer in some areas, a Saturday opening of seasons, and cooperation of landowners in opening additional hunting lands.

The second general hunting season in the north coastal and inland areas was set one week later than usual this year to minimize fire hazards and to permit a greater harvest of deer which remain late in inaccessible summer range areas.

Those of the state's 310,000 licensed deer hunters who didn't use both their tags during the early season may go after deer in the north coastal counties of Del Norte, Humboldt, Trinity, and western portions of Siskiyou, Shasta, and Tehama counties until one-half hour after sunset, October 21. A bag limit of two bucks is in effect.

One buck may be taken in portions of 32 inland and Sierra counties, and San Diego county, during the 30-day open season.

Hunters must carry with them a valid hunting license and deer tags.

Communicable Diseases Show Increase

SAN JOSE READY FOR GAME WITH DONS TONIGHT

San Jose State completed final heavy workouts for its season opener this week as the Spartans prepare to meet the highly regarded USF Dons Friday night at Kezar Stadium in San Francisco.

Coach Bob Bronzan expressed satisfaction with the Spartans after sending them through stern scrimmages over the weekend. The entire offensive patterns were tested in a two-hour scrim which produced ten touchdowns last Friday and the Spartans went through a rugged two and one-half hour defensive scrimmage.

Despite satisfaction with the "better than expected" progress and a tremendous team spirit apparent in the Spartan squad, Bronzan repeated his pre-season estimate of the squad. "We are short on experience in key spots, notably tackles and ends, and this will hurt us until our new men acquire sufficient game conditioning."

Whether the Golden Raiders can cope with the running and general all-around excellence of Ollie Matson and the passing of Ed Brown Friday night is problematical, but Bronzan and his Spartans have refused to show pessimism and are heading into the opening game with plans to show hustle, aggressive blocking and tackling and let the game be decided on those factors.

Only one injured Spartan will miss the game. Lynn Aplanalp, first string quarterback, has torn foot ligaments which are expected to keep him sidelined.

The Spartans will probably not use any split-T in the opener, although they are prepared for this style of attack. The conventional T will be standard offense, with the single wing also in the repertoire.

Bronzan's starting offensive lineup includes six seniors, three juniors and two sophomores. The defensive unit includes six seniors, four juniors and one freshman.

Mrs. May Peterson and daughter of San Diego, called at the Harrison Avenue home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cutting Sunday. Mrs. Peterson's daughter is entering the University of California this fall.

KERR SUBMITS REPORT ON GENERAL

joint use by the police and fire departments; (3) build an addition to the present fire station; (4) purchase a privately owned residence on a rental basis or on easy payment plan; or, (5) erect a new city hall.

As a temporary expedient, it would seem to be more advisable to adopt the rental plan and thus avoid heavy expenditures, and at the same time, permit of ready change if experience indicated such a necessity.

The second plan suggests possibility of interference with protection services by creating a crowded condition. Plan 4 might contain possibilities that would justify more thorough study and investigation. Plans 3 and 5 would require heavy investments and it is doubtful if such expenditures are advisable at the start of city operations.

The budget allowance of $2,300 "capital outlays" is to provide for purchase of office furniture and fixtures such as a calculating machine, typewriter, filing cabinets, desks and chairs, tables, desk lamps, ceiling lights, a balustrade or railing, etc. Of course some of these items could be purchased second hand at a considerable saving.

PUBLIC LIBRARY

There need be no change in the status of the present county library located in Campbell, unless local citizens elect to establish and maintain a municipal library.

The 1950-51 tax rate assessment to maintain the county library fund is $0.030 per $100 of assessed valuation. It is quite doubtful if a Campbell city library could be maintained and operated on a three cent rate.

The following table lists the only California cities having a population approaching 8000 as of April 1, 1950. Three Santa Clara County cities are also listed.

This tabulation shows cost experience of each city for year ending June 30, 1950 to cover governmental functions performed as relating to "general" or "administrative" expenses.

On the basis of 8,000 as the possible population range for Campbell, it might appear at first glance that a proposed budget of $12,500 for general administration and town hall expenses is understated. Yet, such doubt should dissipate quickly when it is realized that conditions and circumstances now prevailing in Campbell are quite dissimilar to that of any of these cities, and in fact, any of the 304 incorporated cities of California. As for instance: all of these cities have been in operation for long periods of time, and, quite naturally, more services and improved facilities have been added year after year which are not presently available to Campbell as a newly organized municipality; eight of these cities operate municipal owned water works; and, one city operates its own electric light plant. Various other differences prevail. However, the comparisons are made to end that each reader can make his own appraisal of values.

The next summary is a detailed accounting classification as used by the State Controller in making official reports to indicate that portion of cost of city maintenance known as "general government" or administration.

Statement is divided into three parts and differentiates as between nine items of expense to cover: (1) detailed cost experience for each of five Santa Clara county cities during year ended June 30, 1950; (2) cost experience for each of five recently incorporated cities as shown by first report as of June 30; and, (3) cost experience as indicated by second annual report of the second city group.

ADDENDUM:

The fire insurance rate for Campbell proper is 62½ cents; the rate in the approved district west of the railroad track (with hydrants) is 67½ cents; and, the rate in the Central Fire District, with little or no hydrant facilities, is 90 cents per $100 of protection against loss by fire for a period of three years. Or, a saving of 22½ cents between an approved district and one not approved by the underwriters.

If, as stated by experienced firemen, the cost of installing a hydrant is $50 and hydrants spaced 1500 feet apart are adequate, then a community like the one adjoining Emory Street cannot afford to be without hydrant facilities, even to the extent of local residents making their own installations.

As for example, a reliable resident states that there are five streets in the immediate locality of Emory Drive without hydrants; eight-inch water mains are laid; each street is approximately 1500 feet in length; the average number of home owners per street is twelve; and, that nine hydrants will be ample for this locality. Hence, on the basis of $50 per hydrant, the total cost of installation would be $450. On the basis of a $10,000 policy for each home, the annual saving on insurance would be $7.50 per unit. On the basis of five streets each containing twelve residences, the saving for a single year would be sufficient to install the necessary hydrants. And, the savings would continue year after year.

In this connection, attention is invited to an item of $5,500 contained in the proposed city budget under title of "Contingencies." This allowance was set aside for just such purposes. If you do not favor home rule through city incorporation, and the county supervisors are not interested in furnishing needed facilities, it will pay you to look after your own interests.

ROTARY CLUB HEARS TALK ON COMMUNIST TACTICS WITH CHINESE

Members of the Campbell Rotary Club heard Dr. Dwight Rugh, former missionary in China for twenty years, tell of conditions which led to the Communist usurpation of power in the Far East. Rugh told the group that it was important to remember that living conditions for the average Chinese before the Communists took over had reached such a low level that almost any change was considered as a change for the better.

"Actually, the Chinese welcomed the Communists with open arms," he stated that for centuries the common man had been so oppressed that existence itself was made difficult and in many cases, impossible.

"The Communists broke up the old system of tenant and landlord by dividing the lands. Each man, however, received such a small plot that his holdings were practically negligible. In addition, the Communists taxed away almost all of his wages or produce."

Rugh stated that the Communists have made many material improvements in China. "They have made better transportation available, installed water systems and sewage systems, but the people have paid for these advantages by giving the government control over their whole lives, down to the smallest detail. 'No person under the Communist rule may now move, change jobs, or marry without first asking permission of the government. The Chinese,' he continued, 'know no such thing as our freedom of speech, religion or press.'"

"In addition to their control of the private individuals life, the Communists are promoting a never-ending campaign of 'Hate the West.' They have taken advantage of some of the unfair practices resulting from the 'Open Door' policy, and are continually reminding the people of the West's exploitation of them. Most of the Chinese realize that America has not been a great offender in this respect, and that the United States has given much more than other countries in return for what they have taken, but the Communists work on the theory that a lie, repeated often enough and loud enough, will eventually take on the aura of truth." Rugh stated that the Communists have promulgated some of the most preposterous stories in this respect, particularly since the outbreak of the Korean war.

To combat this campaign of lies and hate, the United States has one of the weakest propaganda services in the world, Rugh told his audience. He suggested a more thorough publicity campaign be directed toward the people of the Far East. "Unless we can show the people of the Far East that the 'American Way of Life' actually is far superior to the Communists', all of Asia will swing quite readily to the Reds."

Rugh told of some of his personal experiences while in China during the Communist rule, stating that during his last year there he was the subject of an intense campaign of personal vilification.

On Monday, September 24, the club will hear Ernie Bush, new district governor, District 155, Ro-

FINAL PLANS ARE READIED FOR COMMUNITY SERVICE SOLICITATIONS

Final plans are being made for the commencement of the Campbell Community Service Drive which will start in the business district of Campbell on September 24 and in the residential districts on October 1. Solicitation in the residential districts will start with a kickoff dinner in the high school cafeteria at 6:30 p.m. on October 1.

Purpose of the annual drive is to obtain funds for the library, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Campfire Girls, YMCA, Visiting Nurses Association and the Family Service Association. Workers and officers of the drive are unpaid volunteers with approximately 99 percent of the funds collected going directly into these local organizations. Goal for this year is $14,000.

Time of the kickoff breakfast for the business solicitation has been changed from 8 a.m., September 24, to 7:30 a.m. The breakfast will be held in the cafeteria of the Campbell Union high school.

The Campbell district has been broken down into various units and a coordinator has been chosen to head each unit and to arrange for volunteer solicitors for their sectors.

Coordinators for the various sectors are Mrs. Henry Parysek, for Campbell; Mrs. Lucy Mitchell, Cambrian; Mrs. George Robertson, Moreland; Ed Tablak, San Tomas, and Mrs. Eugen Andres, Moorpark.

Mrs. Parysek replaces Mrs. Henry Gordon as coordinator of the Campbell district. Mrs. Gordon resigned that post because of the press of other duties. She will, however, continue to help with solicitations. Mrs. Parysek has been active in local civic affairs for several years. She is a member of the Campbell Garden Club and is active in the PTA. She has resided in the area for twelve years.
